News About: Business Continuity Training (FREE online) by the ABIA, EDP, and CDB

Media Contact: ABIA: Shermaine Rodgers, Telephone 481-1014.

Business Continuity Training - Free

The Antigua and Barbuda Investment Authority (ABIA), the Entrepreneurial Development Programme (EDP), and the Caribbean Development Bank (CDB), are pleased to announce a free online training seminar from February 27th to 28th from 2:00 pm to 4:30 pm.

Reason for this Training Seminar

Businesses face many challenges that could lead to financial ruin due to significant disruptions. Significant disruptions can arise from hurricanes, flooding, fire, cyber security breaches, power outages, human error, and multiple global events. Therefore, it is important for businesses to build resilience and prepare for these types of events.

Call to Action

The ABIA, EDP and CDB are therefore calling on all small and medium-sized enterprises, including service providers, manufacturers and distributors to register now to reserve your space.

The Benefits of Attending

1. Learn how to protect your business from disruptive events
2. Increase employee awareness about the need to protect business from disruptions
3. Minimize disruptions and recover quickly from natural disasters
4. Learn how to create and implement risk management strategies
5. Protect current and future cash flow
