

PRESS RELEASE

Training Opportunity: The Antigua and Barbuda Investment Authority (ABIA) in conjunction with the Caribbean Development Bank (CDB) is offering training to the general public on the topic: Financial Literacy

Who Should Apply: The training is specifically designed for small business owners and individuals who are seeking to learn how to improve their financial knowledge management skills.

Date of Training. The training will be held from February 4th to 6th, 2025, at the Inland Revenue Department Conference Room from 5:30 pm – 7:30 pm nightly, cost of $150.00

How to Register: Interested persons can register through the following link shown below.

<https://forms.gle/u7EKZJs6TteR35xQ9>

The Benefits of Attending:

- Enhanced ability to make informed financial decisions
- Understand and interpret financial statements
- Improve cash flow management in your business
- Explore financing options and investment opportunities
- Network with like-minded individuals and business owners

Action required: Do not miss this opportunity to improve your financial knowledge. Register today and take the first steps towards a more informed and decisive approach to making financial decisions.

Media contact: For questions and additional information, please contact Jacqueline Yearwood at 481-1015

About the ABIA: The Antigua and Barbuda Investment Authority (ABIA) offers various training programs and technical assistance to support micro, small and medium sized enterprises (MSMEs).