FOOD. PEOPLE. CULTURE

A unique Antiguan and Barbudan gastronomical experience poised to titillate your senses. Spanning 14 days, the inaugural Antigua and Barbuda Restaurant Week will celebrate one of the destination's best qualities – its food, its people and its culture. Diners can expect a variety of delectable cuisine, offering visitors and nationals an opportunity to experience special menus and/or experiences at prix-fixe (discounted) prices across a range of restaurants. During the fourteen-day food experience, diners can also enjoy local food, international Chef appearances and the Food and Art Experience.

ANTIGUA SAILING WEEK 2023 - APRIL 29 - MAY 5

Antigua & Barbuda, the backdrop of Antigua Sailing Week is the place to Race, Chase & Celebrate in 2023. With less than 4 weeks to go, regatta organisers are very excited to share all of the ways that spectators and those not racing can have an unforgettable time by opting into any or many of the array of activities for the 54th Antigua Sailing Week from April 29 – May 5th.
