

FINANCIAL LITERACY AND MANAGEMENT TRAINING FOR MSMES

September 30 - October 03, 2024

5:30 PM – 7:30 PM

Face to Face Sessions

Department of Environment

Topics to be Covered:

- Importance of Financial Statements for Internal & External Use
- Basic Record Keeping
- Reading and Understanding Financial Statements
- Making Better Financial Decisions
- Budgeting and Sales Forecasting
- Putting it All Together

Learning Outcomes

- Develop Skills to Avoid Business Failure
- Increased Ability to Manage Finance
- Understand the Importance of Budgeting
- Improve Ability to make better Financial Decisions
- Understand the Fundamentals of Investing
- Increased Ability to manage Business more Successfully

How to Register?

1. Click on the link below

<https://forms.gle/j5t6ugCRBi2MhsLz6>

2. Register at our office in the Sagicor Building

3. Email: edd-abia@ab.gov.ag

4. Tel # : 481-1001/2

Cost: $150.00

Facilitators:

Anthony Stuart
CPA; MBA; CFE
Financial Consultant

Garfield Joseph, MBA
Executive Director ABIA

Who Should Attend?

- Operators and Owners of Small Businesses, especially women and youths (18–35 years)
- Individuals who want to Improve their Financial Literacy Skills and Manage their Finances more Effectively to start or operate a business.

Presented By:

- Antigua & Barbuda Investment Authority (ABIA) &
- Caribbean Development Bank (CDB)

