Ministry of Information Launches COVID-19 Website

ST. JOHN'S, ANTIGUA...OCTOBER 22, 2020 – The Ministry of Information, Broadcasting, Telecommunications & Information Technology (MIBTIT) has embarked on launching a user friendly COVID-19 Website.

The new website <https://covid19.gov.ag> which is the sole repository of COVID-19 Coronavirus Health information on island provides up-to-date local, regional and global statistics.

According to Information and Communications Officer within the MIBTIT Ms. Jaquis Browne the website is expected to assist persons to stay informed with links to the latest Health Guidelines, Regulations and Travel Advisories. “All of us have to stay aware of the latest COVID-19 information by regularly checking local sites such as this one and local public health authorities”.

The website also features links on the wearing of masks, physical distancing, and the washing of hands. Key Insights from the World Health Organization (WHO), Pan American Health Organization (PAHO) and the Caribbean Public Health Agency (CARPHA) are also shared on the website.

There's also a Contact Us tab for persons to contact the Quarantine Authority, the Mount St. John's Medical Centre, the Ministry of Health, Wellness & Environment, the Central Board of Health and the Ministry of Tourism & Investment.

“Providing access to trusted health information is indeed critical to keeping everyone safe and informed during this pandemic, and this is just part of the Ministry’s mandate in delivering via this medium”.
